

FREEDOM TO BE

An Embracing Life Experience for LGBTQ Youth

Would you like more love and respect in your relationships? Would you like to have the tools to be more comfortable with yourself & others?

NOVEMBER 6-8, 2015 - FT. LAUDERDALE, FL

The Freedom to Be experience will provide a Safe Space so that you can learn to connect and express your deepest intentions to love and be loved. By becoming acutely aware of what underlies your actions, you will experience a new sense of freedom, awareness, and power to create the relationships you desire and to become more peaceful and accepting with yourself.

“Freedom to Be is an eye opening course that give you tools to overcome conflict, create closer relationships and understand the conflicting ways we sometimes unconsciously behave. I took this course with our eldest daughter and it helped us move through disagreements and brought us so much closer.”
- MANDI HAWKE, Director of Youth Services at SunServe

Would you like to discover what YOU truly value? Would you like to live and act based upon YOUR values? You will discover how to be more self-reliant and to release self-imposed limitations on your life. You will experience the loving, caring, creative, and magnificent person you were born to be.
