Join the City of Fort Lauderdale and the L.A. Lee YMCA Family Center for Fort Lauderdale United Day! Volunteers both young and old will kick off the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service by honoring Dr. King's legacy of civic engagement. YMCA and FPL teams, Adopt-A-Street groups, and caring neighbors will build, decorate and stock free lending libraries, landscape and paint three child care centers, clean the streets, and put together care kits for the homeless.

For details or to volunteer for a community project, contact Jorg Hruschka, Chief Service Officer, at jhruschka@fortlauderdale.gov or 954-828-5568.

Earn volunteer points for your qualified homeowners association, which can be used toward future NCIP grants.
